Atlantic Salmon Conservation Schools Network

by MVHS Fly Fishing Club

The Atlantic Salmon Conservation Schools Network (ASCSN) is a network of schools studying the conservation of Atlantic Salmon. Miramichi Valley High School is one of the schools involved along with schools from Scotland, United States, Finland, France, Greenland, Germany and Spain. The aim of the network is for schools to study their own local salmon river and share this information with the rest of the network through direct meetings and online.

Miramichi/Maine Hosting ASCSN schools (2019)

In 2019 we are excited to be hosting over 30 students and 15 adult supervisors, who will be travelling to the Miramichi to learn more about conservation. Participants will spend 2.5 days in the Miramichi and 2.5 days in East Machias, Maine.

The host Miramichi team will be led by Ashley Hallihan, a science teacher from MVHS, along with MVHS Fly Fishing Club organizers Jason Curtis and Tony Svarc. We are hoping to provide lodging at traditional fishing lodges along the Southwest Miramichi River.

We plan to have guides teach participants fly fishing techniques, and offer fly tying lessons along with a canoe trip down the river. We will be organizing presentations from a variety of speakers and tours of local facilities. ASCSN participants will experience recreational activities along with learning about the heritage and conservation efforts of the Miramichi River.

The success of this event will rely on the partners and support from our community. We hope you will value this amazing opportunity to showcase the Miramichi River to youth from both shores of the Atlantic Ocean. A global gathering of like-minded youths is an excellent opportunity to promote stewardship and showcase the importance of conserving this amazing species.

Miramichi / Maine Exchange July 2018

In preparation for the 2019 event, we will be organizing an exchange between Miramichi/Maine participants in late July 2018. This event will be amongst 12 students and 4 adult supervisors. In Miramichi, we will be planning similar activities that are planned for 2019. As a result, the students involved will become mentors for the ASCSN students coming next summer. Lodging will be provided along with meals.

Here's how you can help support this initiative: volunteer as a guide, deliver a presentation, deliver fly tying instruction, help with canoe trip (canoes/travel), tour guide, offer lodging, offer access to private water, donate items for fundraising, raffle draws, online silent auction, donate financially.

MVHS Fly Fishing Club are excited to have a booth at the upcoming Atlantic Salmon Fly International being hosted at the Curling Club in Miramichi June 22nd – 24th. Drop by and visit our booth!

Giv'er is about enjoying your day, giving it your all, putting some muscle behind it, giving it some gas, all the while staying true to good Miramichi values. Our collaborative mindset is contagious. Send us your good stuff to talk about on the river! We're looking for events, stories, celebrations, pictures and video links about what's up, what's new, what's happening. Keep it clean, keep it positive, and we'll promote it.

Artisans in developing countries can then bring their products and stories to this event through long-term fair trading relationships. This lays the groundwork for sustainable change to allow people a chance to take charge of their own lives and: put food on their table, send their children to school, and keep their family healthy. The sale also encourages good working conditions, design collaborations, and eco-conscious commitments between buyer and seller.

Miramichi River Community (MRC) Theatre Festival

August 13th-16th

Naomi McGowan and Samuel Crowell with Buttercup Productions are proud to announce the first (and hopefully annual!) Miramichi River Community (MRC) Theatre Festival this August 13th to 16th.

In loving memory of Lloyd Cameron, (Mr. C Fest) two young Miramichi artists wish to continue to spread an appreciation for community, local talent, skill and, of course, theatre!

This is a community-based, fringe-style theatre festival. At our three participating performance spaces in Chatham (The Vogue, Creative Grounds and The Loft) we will be holding free staged readings, free art displays with acoustic performances, free workshops and full plays and musicals. With one bracelet to get you into everything and so many FREE events, there is something for everyone! For all ages, by all ages!

Performers wanted for these upcoming productions!

THE OLD APARTMENT: A Barenaked Ladies Musical - In 1994, Halifax, Enid challenges her daughter Courtney to be as independent and responsible as she claims by surviving her first apartment.

Featuring an original story by Samuel Crowell but with the hits made famous and penned by the Barenaked Ladies.

SEMI-SWEETHEART: A One-Act Comedy by Samuel Crowell - Joan McCloud is dying, but that isn't all that is to be said about her. When Charlotte, Joan's childhood best friend, arrives at the hospital, we learn two things. Number one: Joan McCloud loves chocolate. And Number two: The chaotic existence it causes for one Joan McCloud.

CO-MOVE-ITY: A Physical Theatre Play - No dance training necessary! Looking to create a completely original physical theatre show work with the help of middle schoolers, high schoolers and any ages beyond! Created and performed by ensemble with guidance from festival organizers and movement artists Samuel Crowell and Naomi McGowan.

Schedule: The full schedule of workshops and show times will be printed by July 1st and posted to our Facebook page - Buttercup Productions.

Bracelets/Tickets:

Day-pass: $5 (Access to all shows during one day).

Bracelet: $15/advance, $20 at door (access to all shows)

12yrs and under: free bracelet.

L to R: Jenn Flewelling, Liam Harvey-Crowell, Courtney Arsenault.

Canadian National Peacekeepers' Day

Canadian Peacekeeping Veterans Association Miramichi Chapter

On Saturday, August 9th 2018 there will be a parade and ceremony to raise the United Nations flag in celebration of the globally important contribution of peacekeeping and Peacekeepers to world peace, and in commemoration of fallen Peacekeepers. All veterans are welcome to join in the parade and ceremony beginning at 11:00 am in Elm Park, Chatham and Miramichi area residents are invited to come and support this significant event.

On 9 August 1974, Canadian Forces Buffalo #115461 aircraft was on a scheduled supply flight from Ismailia, Egypt to Damascus, Syria. Shortly after crossing the Lebanon-Syria border into Syria, three surface-to-air missiles were fired at the Buffalo resulting in the destruction of the aircraft and the deaths of nine Canadian Forces Peacekeepers. Tragically, this was the largest single loss of life in the history of Canadian peacekeeping.

"Proud to have served in the service of Peace"

A reconstructed Buffalo aircraft similar to the one shot down on August 9th, 1974.

Research Your Roots this Summer!

Miramichi Genealogical Society

The New Brunswick Genealogical Society (NBGS) Miramichi Branch has been active on the river for 27 years, having been formed in April 1991. The group meets eight times a year on the fourth Tuesday of the month at 6:15 pm at the Chatham Public Library. Meetings are not held in June, July, August or December. Members of the public are welcome to attend any meeting.

NBGS Miramichi's mandate is to promote the collection, preservation and accessibility of genealogical and heritage records through projects pertaining to genealogy and heritage. We do this by promoting education of members and the general public in the Miramichi area.

Our next Branch meeting will be September 25th at 6:15 at the Chatham Public Library.

"Searching Your Irish Family....especially those from County Cork." at the Chatham Public Library from 1:30 to 4:30pm. Since retiring and moving back to her roots in Pokeshaw on

NB's north shore Mary Anne's time has been well used as curator of the Irish Gallery in the new Museum of Founding Cultures in Grande Anse.

This 3-hour workshop is open to the public. A handout of materials will be given along with an explanation of Irish records and many resources (email addresses, ordnance maps, DNA map, books etc.) to assist your search. Those planning to attend are asked to bring family notes and a laptop so that they can do some research as well.

Genealogy Tour of Ireland

Mary Anne Riordon Barry's fourth organized tour to Ireland is scheduled for September 30 to October 14, 2018.

The tour is planned so that an hour can be taken away from the usual tourist routes and onto side roads to allow passengers a chance to visit a region as close as possible to where their ancestors came from. Your family records should be sent to Mary Anne so she can integrate your spot of family origin into the itinerary. Dance shows, dinners, Cobb River cruise, castles, city tours, full breakfasts, many dinners, nice hotels.....they are all included!

Enquiries and booking can be made at 137@maritimetravel.ca You can contact Sabine at 1 506 622 1100 at the Douglstown office and she will send you Mary Anne's contact information. The maximum number of passengers is 28.

Upcoming Events

Miramichi Irish Festival - Research Room

Once again this year, NBGS Miramichi Branch will be participating in the Miramichi Irish Festival. We will be at Rodd Miramichi on Friday, July 20 and Saturday, July 21, from 10 am to 5 pm. Branch materials (census records 1851-1901, cemetery and church records, obituary books, etc.) as well as many other publications and numerous family histories will be available for research purposes. Branch members will be on hand to offer assistance.

Edie Szabo - Teaching and Encouraging Artists is her Passion

by Stacy Underhill

Edie Szabo's lifelong passion for art started when she was six years old, living in Budapest. Her early life was hard, growing up under communist rule but amidst the despair she discovered the studio of a neighbourhood painter, and was instantly mesmerized. "Soon he found me at his doorstep watching, admiring his ability, and I could not wait to get my hands on his brushes and tubes of paints... even though I was terrified of his dogs," says Edie.

At age 18 she studied art and design in Budapest and at 22 her grandparents brought her to Canada. She worked hard to study English and in a few years become a lab and xray technician in a hospital in Ontario.

"Living and working in many places in Ontario and the Maritimes my art had to take a second place but always was the first in my heart." She eventually began to study art again by attending art schools, seminars by art institutes and artists in Canada, Budapest and USA.

Edie says she is always curious about how other artists think. "I often took courses from artists, not because I wanted to learn how to paint like them, but because I wanted to get inside their minds and understand how they saw the world, and why they made the artistic choices that they did." She has studied with such famous artists as Robert Bateman, M. Katherine Hurley and Bob Ross who was also a friend.

I visited Edie at her home in Loggieville and she showed me an enormous scrapbook filled with many newspaper clippings and photos from all the exhibits she attended throughout Ontario, the Maritimes, USA and Hungary, the classes she has taught, paintings she donated, and prizes won at juried fine art exhibits. When she turned the page to find a letter from a former student, a young man expressing his gratitude for all he had learned from her, she said "This is the most important thing I have to show you. This is what it is all about... teaching and encouraging young artists."

Edie and her husband Ron moved to Miramichi from PEI a few years ago so she could be closer to an eye doctor. Her eyesight required a specialists care and when Dr. Sharma was recommended to her, they decided to move.

I first met Edie at one of her oil painting classes held in Miramichi and I knew I had stumbled upon something special. The close-knit group was very welcoming and lunch time felt like a family gathering with home-made scalloped potatoes and a hearty soup & biscuits made by Ron. One thing was clear, Edie's students adore her, and some have been attending for years.

"My students are at all different skill levels and some have never held a brush before. Some come for the social aspect and “therapy” that painting provides, while others are serious about becoming artists,” says Edie. She encourages her students to not copy her work, but to learn the basic techniques and find their own style. “I teach them about using colour and contrast, how to create shadows and light, and give them the freedom to be creative. Everyone puts their own feelings into the painting, so they all come out different.”

Edie describes her style as romantic realism, and she loves painting with lots of colour. She paints everything from memory, or her imagination, and she likes to put a little bit of mystery in a painting in the form of not showing something. “The hope of any artist is for their work to evoke emotions from people. I want them to feel something and to keep looking for what is, or maybe isn’t there in a painting – to wonder what is behind the foggy mist, or where does that path lead.” Edie was at an exhibit in Bar Harbour, Maine, and a woman was brought to tears by one of her sunset paintings. Edie was so moved by her reaction that she gave her the painting.

Monthly oil painting classes are held at the United Church Centre in Newcastle (556 King George Hwy) from 9am to 3pm. For $65 you take home a completed 16 x 20 stretched canvas painting. All set-up, clean up, and supplies are provided, along with a home-made lunch. For information and to sign-up find Edie Szabo Oil Painting Classes on Facebook, or call Edie at 622-3260 or email ediegood@gmail.com. Private classes are also available upon request.

History of Beaubear Credit Union

By Shawn McCarthy

This year, the Beaubear Credit Union celebrates its 80th anniversary as a staple in the Miramichi area. Looking back over their storied history, there can be little doubt that, while undergoing a great deal of change, they have long retained their own unique, and admirable, character.

The late 19th century and early 1900s were considered boom years for Nelson, with the Burchill & O'Brien mills running alongside a number of others, and an estimated 12 stores servicing the ballooning population, this was indeed a high-water mark. Yet, it was not to last. Construction of the Morrissey Bridge saw traffic bypass Nelson and the depression that followed the First World War was especially difficult to bear. It was in these trying years that Father Hill, rector of St. Thomas College in Chatham, came to Nelson to speak about how the people might band together and gain a measure of self-reliance through creating a Credit Union. Many liked what they heard and in 1938 ten men gathered to discuss the matter at the Gould house.

These were Rev. E.J. Connors, Cloran Coughlin, Adrian English, George Stewart, Cleo Gould, Frank Maher, John McCarthy, Raymond Murphy, Douglas Stewart and Bert Coughlin. From these ten individuals, each depositing 25¢, the agreed unit of savings, the roots of the local Credit Union took form.

It was decided that the Credit Union would service an area beginning on Foley Hill to Ben DeRoches' property in Chatham Head, and back to cover Craigville and Douglasfield. Cleo Gould was named the first treasurer and manager, and allotted 60¢ a year for expenses.

There remained now only the name of the Credit Union to be decided. Calling it after the local Catholic church, St. Patrick's, was voted down, since, as was said among those who started the movement in Nova Scotia, "There's no Catholic way or Protestant way to catch a fish, only the cooperative way." It was Rev. Connors, looking across the river, who suggested the name of Beaubear, after the 161-acre Island at the confluence of both branches of the Miramichi River. Men and women from all walks worked together on the Island throughout its history, and it was thought that such cooperation was little different from what was now being planned. So, from then on it was decided to call the Credit Union Beaubear.

At the first annual meeting the balance sheet read: Earnings - $1.28; Loans - $99; Assets - $93.55; Membership - 45.

Growth was slow until 1946, when the membership decided to partake of the share and loan insurance of CVNA. At that time, the holdings of the Beaubear Credit Union were $9000, yet, within twelve years, in 1958, this had grown to $140,924. Within a few short decades people from across Canada began to regard Nelson as a model community, showcasing the many benefits of co-operation.

Beginning in St. Patrick's rectory in 1941, the office moved across from the Nelson post office in 1950, a building later sold to what the Beaubear Co-op. On December 1, 1966, the Credit Union opened a new building on Nelson Street along with the Co-op. The office and bank received its own building on May 13, 1978. The next year, the Miramichi Credit Union, comprising Millerton, North Esk and Northumberland Co-op Credit Unions, joined with the Beaubear Credit Union. Then in November 2005, the Beaubear Credit Union, with branches on both sides of the Miramichi River, opened its new location on Water Street.

In 2010 the Beaubear Credit Union was the recipient of the Community and Economic Development Award from Credit Union Central of Canada, recognizing its efforts in the establishment of Miramichi Transit. Two years later they received the prestigious Cody Award for exemplary leadership, support and involvement in the community. The next year, 2013, saw recognition from Concentra Financial emPowering Your Communities in the form of a $10,000 donation to help Mount St Joseph Nursing Home build a therapeutic space called a Snoezelen Room. And in 2014, the Beaubear Credit Union was acknowledged as the #2 Best Place to Work in Atlantic Canada, by Progress Magazine and Best Companies Group.

From humble beginnings, the Beaubear Credit Union has, time again, shaped itself to best serve the needs of the community. That said, their commitment to their members, and to Miramichi at large, has never wavered in 80 years, and stands as a sterling tribute to their founders and members throughout the decades.

CELEBRATING

Last year, Beaubear Credit Union gave back $55,000 to the Miramichi in the form of donations, sponsorships and scholarships.

Old Fashioned Cooking with Darlene

Darlene Jardine has worked as a chef most of her life and used to operate Darlene's Tea House in Blackville. She has since turned it into a quaint cottage for rent in the summer, and she still loves to cook.
www.DarlenesCountryCottage.com

This recipe for Chocolate Cream Pie is from an old Hershey's Chocolate Cookbook, published in 1971 as a reprint of the 1934 original version. When I found the Peanut Butter Crust recipe in a Companies Coming Cookbook, I knew these two recipes were meant to go together! Lets start with the crust...

Peanut Butter Crust

1 cup All Purpose Flour
2 tsp Granulated Sugar
1/4 tsp Baking Powder
1/4 tsp Salt
1/4 cup Butter or Margarine
1/4 cup Smooth Peanut Butter
2 tbsp Water

Combine first six ingredients in mixing bowl. Beat on low speed until crumbly. Add water. Work into a ball with hands. Roll out on lightly floured surface. Line 9 inch pie plate. Flute edge. Prick all over with tines of fork. Bake in 400° F {200° C} oven for eight to ten minutes. Yield: 1 pie shell.

Chocolate Cream Pie

2 ½ cups of Milk
3 squares (3 oz) of Hershey's Baking Chocolate (Melted)
2 tablespoons of Flour
3 tablespoons of Cornstarch
1 cup Granulated Sugar
½ teaspoon of Salt
4 Egg Yolks (slightly beaten)
2 tablespoons of Butter
1 ½ teaspoon of Vanilla
9 inch Baked Pie Shell - or Peanut Butter Crust recipe below
4 Egg Whites
½ teaspoon of Cream of Tartar
½ cup of Granulated Sugar

Scald 2 cups of milk with melted baking chocolate in top of double boiler over simmering water, stirring until smooth.

Sift flour, cornstarch, 1 cup of sugar and salt. Mix with remaining ½ cupful of milk. Add to chocolate mixture, stirring constantly, until thickened. Cook 10 minutes longer.

Remove from fire; gradually add some of chocolate mixture to beaten egg yolks and return to double boiler. Cook 2 minutes longer, stirring occasionally. Remove from fire; add butter and vanilla. Pour into baked pie shell.

Cover with meringue made by beating egg whites with cream of tartar until frothy. Gradually add ½ cupful of sugar – a tablespoon at a time, beating until stiff. Brown in hot oven for 425°F for 5 minutes. Cool to room temperature. Chill and serve cool.

Baking Chocolate Tips: If you can't find Hersheys brand use whatever is available. Just check the package to determine the size of square needed for each ounce. Cocoa may be used in place of baking chocolate - 3 Tblsp plus 1 Tblsp shortening equals 1 ounce of baking chocolate. Do not substitute chocolate baking chips or milk chocolate (candy bar) for baking chocolate in recipes.

Six Common Reasons for Computer Failure

• Voltage spike – This is a momentary change in electricity. Even a small power glitch can damage a computer and corrupt data. If your screen goes blank during a thunderstorm, it's likely that a voltage spike is responsible.

• Failure to load software upgrades

– Computer software often comes with various bugs, or vulnerabilities. These are simply programming mistakes. When an error is discovered, the software designer sends out a “patch” that requires downloading and rebooting. Failing to upgrade the software by running the patch can lead to corruption of data.

• Failure to keep virus protection up to date – There are several malware protection packages available. Once installed, the subscription must be maintained. One telltale sign of a malware infected computer is slow data processing.

• Inadequate cooling – Computers produce heat, and the more data they process, the more heat must be eliminated. Servers - the “brains” of computers - fail under excess heat, making cooling essential.

• Loss of Power, PDU fails – Power Distribution Units are similar to power bars in homes and offices. Receptacles wear out and can be the sources of bad contacts, and moisture can lead to corrosion.

• Sprinkler system or AC above the servers – When a data room is protected by a water sprinkler system, or located beneath an AC unit, a small leak can damage electronic equipment.

By addressing these common culprits, you reduce the overall risk of computer systems failing. Need to

Here We Grow Again!

Pizza Delight in Chatham has a modern new look, inside and out! Brian and Genevieve Geneau are proud to say their restaurant was the 1st in Atlantic Canada to renovate and adopt the new style. Always striving to give guests the best experience they can have, this is the 2nd time in 11 years they have renovated the restaurant.

Canadian owned and operated, Pizza Delight was started in 1968 in Shediac, and the Chatham location followed the next year - Celebrating 50 years in 2019!

Drop by to see the new look, and stay for the popular lunch buffet or choose from the Italian inspired menu. Remember, our pizza crust is always made fresh daily! Located at 1670 Water Street. Local delivery service is available as well as online ordering at www.pizzadelight.ca. Tel: 506- 778-8316

Community organizations, groups, agencies, and committees transform Miramichi with the support of talented volunteers. Through our Volunteer Match program we align volunteer skills and expertise with your organization's needs.

We have launched a new online platform that makes it even easier to connect organizations with the volunteers they need at: www.miramichivolunteer.com/register

Here's what the volunteer committee of the 2017 Tall ships Festival had to say about Volunteer Miramichi:

- "We were able to engage and mobilize over 70 people who were registered through Volunteer Miramichi"
- "Kim's attention to detail and ability to engage her network was second to none."

Life is a Dream come true when you're at the Cottage.

Lazy days of summer are a treat when you spend them at the cottage. Huddled & gathered around the table enjoying dad's latest BBQ treat paired with mom's homemade potato salad.

The vision for the 2018 Big Brothers Big Sisters Dream Cottage was inspired by riverside memories of years gone by. Touches of coastal blue paired with an updated "on trend" deep blue give you the feeling of fresh and dreams of waterside views.

Here's our Tips on how you can get the "Designer Coastal Look" at your cottage:

Tip #1- Themes are for parks, great style is for the cottage. Pick your Style and stick to it!

Often times folks tend to come up with a "theme" or look for their space and take it one step too far. I never like to use the word theme to describe a home or cottage. It tends to make you think in a narrow scope instead of broadening your horizons or definitions of the look you are on the hunt to create. Stay focused, stay on track and keep your designer shopping list on hand at all times. We know not to shop for groceries hungry and without a list. The same for design shopping, don't shop without a carefully planned design and your list.

Tip #2- Nautical, Coastal and Cottage isn't all about anchors & lobster traps. It's about creating a feeling of being on the coast, water's edge or the perfect summer retreat. Without realizing it, patterns, textures and certain colours awake the coastal feel in all of us.

When planning this year's cottage, the team at Décor Haute Look pulled together comfortable fabrics in patterns of gingham & plaid with hints of whimsical fresh florals throughout. Added to the look are accents in multiple colours of blue for a feeling of comfort and waterside style.

Notice how the bedding paired with the wallpaper awakens a sense of comfort when paired with the pop of colour created by the red oars affixed to the wall for art.

Tip #3- Sometimes the Odd piece is the perfect piece. Like grandma used to say, "Too much of a good thing is Not a good thing".

Like our wardrobes, wearing too much of the same designer can be bad for the complete look. In design, too many "matching" pieces can be a bad thing. In particular, when you are trying to create a cottage look, stay away from the "5 piece set" in the kitchen and the bedrooms. This year's Dream Cottage is layered in odd pieces to create the perfect designer look. In the bedrooms, night stands nicely compliment the beds, but are not from the same collection. The dining area is a mismatch of white Amish-style dining chairs paired with a more refined style dining table. The mismatched look has a place in this cottage, it actually completes it.

We hope you enjoy and are inspired by the design Julie, Johanne and I have put together for this year's Dream Cottage. Roy Brothers construction has once again patiently, professionally and perfectly executed and built an amazing cottage for us to design. Thank you to them and to you folks for supporting this worthy cause. After all, summer is about lazy, enjoyable days and new memories – the monetary proceeds from this cottage grants those same feelings to the kids in which they support. Here's to wishing you that your dreams come true at the cottage this summer.

Drop by and visit the Dream Cottage today, beside the Portage Restaurant on Hwy 11 or take a peak inside the cottage via their website www.windreamcottage.com

A TASTE OF METEPENAGIAG "OOKDOTAAN"

Your personal, guided tour of the 3,000 year old Aboriginal community and Heritage Park begins with the heavenly aromas of the cooking fire and traditional foods. It continues with a stop at the Interpretation Centre to view the exhibits and learn more about the lives of the people who called this land 'home'. Gather fresh ingredients for the tea that will be served with food prepared in an outdoor cooking shelter. Sit down to listen to stories of Metepenagiag before sampling seasonal fish or summer game with wild rice, traditional bread and fragrant cedar tea. Don't forget to linger around the campfire to hear more stories about this ancient way of life.

HERITAGE PARK
PARC HISTORIQUE
OETJI SGOALITIE GATI

TIPI RETREATS

Metepenagiag's representation and interpretation of the Mi'kmaq culture is excellent, and it just got even better – you can now sleep in a traditional tipi. Once you arrive at the Heritage Park, you will be given a tour of the park and then you'll be taken to your traditional accommodations. You'll be assigned a tipi for the night and staff will be on hand to assist with the activities around the campfire and lead the storytelling. Ancient Mi'kmaq culture has existed at its life source for over 3,000 years, so there are a lot of stories to tell! Sleeping under the stars, in the fresh air, surrounded by such a rich history is sure to take your understanding and appreciation of the culture to a whole new level. Not to mention, you'll be disconnected from the noise of everyday life, and at peace with nature, making it a truly spiritual experience.

Rates: $65 - $95

July 2 - August 31, Monday to Friday 1 day and 1 night, Duration: 1 Day, 1 Hour

Reservations required: No

Experience available in: English, Mi'kmaq

Words of Appreciation - I want to say thanks for the respect that the ESSO service station in Nordin has for the handicapped and elderly. It's more than a hardship for me when it comes to gassing up but I discovered that the ESSO will fully serve you with a gracious smile. I recommend everyone that has an issue with mobility to go, it's full service. - Lee Morais

Are Plastic Bags Recyclable?

Soft plastics such as shopping bags, bread bags, frozen food bags, plastic wrap and chip bags are not recyclable in the Residential Curbside Recycling Program. Soft plastics can cause mechanical breakdowns at the sorting facility resulting in delays.

Some soft plastics such as bags may be identified as a #4 or #5 plastic but are not accepted in the recycling cart. The only EXCEPTION to soft plastics is that shredded paper must be deposited in a tied transparent bag. All other plastic bags including bread bags, food storage bags, flyer bags (don't forget to recycled the flyers), can be disposed with garbage.

Plastic shopping bags can be returned to participating retailers (such as local grocery stores) to be recycled through their program. Other alternatives include reusing the bags or donating them to local charities. Avoid using plastic produce bags by purchasing or making your own mesh/cloth bags.

Many of the materials we throw away can be recycled. Recycling conserves natural resources using less energy and raw materials to produce new products. Recycling helps protect the environment, removes harmful substances from the waste stream, diverts waste from the landfill and extends the life of the facility.

Pick-up your free reusable shopping bag at the Greater Miramichi Regional Service Commission – Solid Waste Services office at 505 Old King George Hwy, Miramichi West.

RESIDENTIAL CURBSIDE RECYCLING PROGRAM

DID YOU KNOW?

- Soft plastics, such as plastic shopping bags and food bags are not recyclable in the curbside recycling program.

Are you putting the right things in your recycling cart? The Greater Miramichi Regional Service Commission will be on the streets this summer, inspecting carts as part of the ongoing recycling education and inspection campaign to combat recycling contamination. Non-compliance carts will receive a recycling Feedback sticker as shown below.

RECYCLING FEEDBACK

The items in your cart were not collected due to containing one or more of the following:

- | | | | |
|---|----------------|-------------|-------------|
| ✗ Garbage | ✗ Styrofoam | ✗ Wood | ✗ Tires |
| ✗ Glass | ✗ Plastic bags | ✗ Paint | ✗ Pet waste |
| ✗ Electronic waste | ✗ Syringes | ✗ Batteries | ✗ Other |
| ✗ Items next to the cart will not be collected. ✓ Flatten items to create more space. | | | |

We had to leave your recycling behind. Please do not place non-recyclable items in your blue cart; they belong in the regular garbage. Your recycling cart should NOT be used for garbage collection.

Did you know... One contaminated cart can cause the entire load to be rejected and landfilled instead of being recycled.

When in doubt, keep it out!
